Starting today: Lenten Studies

Our Lenten study this year is entitled Rebuilding the Ruins, the product of a collaborative effort between our diocese and Theology House in Christchurch. The six studies look squarely at the world we live in through the lens of the Old Testament prophets, with a view to challenging us to participate in God's activity of rebuilding. Two study groups are running:

- Sundays 2.30-4.00pm in the Lady Chapel, beginning today 21 February, through to 28 March.
- Wednesdays 3.00-4.30pm in the Hall, beginning 24 February, through to 31 March.

Copies of the study guide are available for purchase from the parish office or at the study group for $5.

Help wanted: The parish catering group will be preparing food for the forthcoming Diocesan training day in Palmerston North. A few extra hands for this will lighten the load. If you can help on Friday 26th please talk to Githa, phone 06 357 3859.

Day

MISSIO DEI The Mission of God

TRAINING FOR ALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE

The way we live bears witness to the truth of the Good News. Training Day is for all God's people to gather and learn how we can witness to the truth in every aspect of our lives.

All of our diocese is invited, so gather your team and fill a car or two, and come to one of our two locations for the first of our Training Days, focussing on Missio Dei: The Mission of God. Topics focus across sharing the gospel in the workplace, in rural settings, online, across cultures, and age groups.
