Getting Ready for Market Day - 9th November.

We are collecting groceries and toiletries for raffles. Please bring any contributions into the office.

AAW is once again collecting goods for the Christmas boxes for Terrace End School. We have been providing Christmas boxes for families who are on the bread line for several years now. We do this as a parish outreach so that the children will have something to open on Christmas day. If you wish to give to this worthy endeavour give Christine a call ph. 358 5403 to discuss what you may be able to provide. If you prefer, you can give cash and Christine will do the shopping.

| Taizé Service TODAY - Sunday 22 September @ 5pm. A short
| service with a pattern of simple chants (songs from the Taizé community), readings, and prayer. All are welcome.

Pet Blessing Service Sunday 6 October @ 10am Speaker will be Juliet Bergh a dog handler with Land Search and Rescue. Any unmarked cash offering from the service will be donated to Land Search and Rescue.

Just joking: In recognition of 19 September being International Talk Like a Pirate Day:

What did pirates call Noah's Boat? "The arrrrrrk."

Prayer matters:

Pray for the parish of St Peter's Wellington.

Pray for the Methodist congregation as they re-establish themselves back into their new building, and giving thanks for their great celebration last week.

Pray for the people affected by the floods in Northern Europe.

Pray for those worldwide that are living in extreme conditions due to war, poverty or natural disaster.

Pray for electoral stability across the globe, and peaceful elections where these are occurring.

Pray for a de-escalation of the growing conflict within the Middle East.

Pray for the Christian churches of Palmerston North, that they may grow in numbers, spiritual commitment and in service to the local community.

Pray for the farmers as they welcome new lambs amongst very wintry conditions.

A Prayer Chain

is available for confidential prayer for anyone or anything you would like prayer for.
